WHILE YOU DRINK COFFEE WE CODE

Kofi Amamoo

- Founder, Eykrom

I was confident enough in iView Labs Pvt Ltd. to pay them even before the product was delivered. The work has satisfied expectations, leading to a continued, trusting engagement between the teams. iView Labs Pvt Ltd. works hard to establish trust in the collaborations, guiding the project confidently and ensuring quality work is being delivered.

Nii Tagoe

- CEO, Urbride

iView has a positive team spirit and collaborative work ethic. Their communication skills are excellent and the team easily understand ultimate project goals. iView follows through on their promises, and despite the time difference, they were responsive and always ready to tackle challenges. - CEO, Urbride

Trung Nguyen

Electronic Engineer, MaxQ Research

iView Labs Pvt Ltd delivered a sophisticated website that is expected to attract potential customers. The team's skills, responsiveness, and robust reporting help keep the project on track. I'm impressed with their expertise and quick response.

Andras Palffy

COO, Tech Arrow

iView Labs Pvt Ltd. facilitated a smooth collaboration that will lead to more work for them. The highly skilled team encompassed vast expertise. They effectively managed the project.

Simon Macneall

CTO, Matrixx

iView Labs Pvt Ltd.'s range of technical expertise empowers the client to release a series of increasingly high caliber new app versions. Intuitively accounting for user feedback, they tailor tweaks and add-ons to enhance the overall UX/UI. A capable project manager makes communication effortless.

Husam Samra

IT manager at Leen Alkhair

Despite some design missteps at first, iView Labs Pvt Ltd. delivered the app with high-quality code and few bugs. The team was willing to address problems at no extra cost.

DOCTOR'S APP CME (CONTINUOUS MEDICAL EDUCATION)

IEM Drug App is a medical journal app for physicians and researchers which enables users to have medical awareness in terms of providing drug's information and latest medical publications.

CMS- CONTENT MANAGEMENT

This application is principally focused on differently abled users, which offers a solution by providing Content, News, and Events for them.

SOCIAL NETWORK-FOR DOCTORS

A community for doctors, by doctors, of the doctors. PlexusMD at its heart has the aim to be a social platform for medical professionals worldwide to exchange ideas and innovations, further the education of medicine, apply for jobs and internships and be a one stop shop for all healthcare needs.

ANALYTIC DASHBOARD

NDDDB sought the help of iView Labs to provide a solution for communicating the information in a subtle manner to the people visiting the NDDDB Exhibit area or to the people seeing information for the same. Quick call to action by data interpretation and data analytics.
